ADVANCED COURSE FOR POLYGRAPH EXAMINERS

POST CONVICTED SEX OFFENDER TESTING

COURSE DESCRIPTION: A 40-hour advanced polygraph examiner course that meets the requirements of the American Polygraph Association (APA) and the American Society of Testing and Materials (ASTM) and qualifies graduates to administer court ordered polygraph testing of convicted sex offenders as a supervision and treatment tool. Probation or treatment providers will find the course helpful in treatment and may also attend for related information. The course qualifies as advanced continuing education training for all polygraph examiners.

COURSE DATES: March 5-9, 2012 and November 12-16, 2012

INSTRUCTORS: MICJ Director Billy H. Thompson and Assistant Director Vickie T. Murphy will present three days regarding specialized polygraph techniques and testing of convicted sex offenders and the regular MICJ staff will present two days relating to treatment and supervision of offenders. All instructors are PCSOT Certified.

FEE & COURSE INFORMATION: Tuition for the advanced course is $650.00. Applications must be received with full payment of $650.00 by Feb 25, 2012 or Nov 1, 2012. A full refund will be made if the class fails to populate or is canceled by MICJ. Applications received after the due date will require a payment of $700.00. Seating is limited to 18 attendees. If the course is canceled for any reason, all fees paid in advance will be promptly refunded. A notebook and handout material will be provided and a letter of completion will be awarded to attendees who complete all 5 days of instruction and also pass a comprehensive final examination. The course is approved by the Maryland Police Training Commission as 40 hours of in-service training. The APA Certification test will be given to qualified attendees. Polygraph Examiners who have conducted less than 200 examinations will be required to submit five [5] satisfactory PCSOT examinations to MICJ for evaluation in order to receive a diploma and PCSOT Certification.
